SHOWCASING YOUR AWARD

SHOUT IT LOUD!

One of the many benefits from being recognised with the IIC accreditation is to use it to attract new customers.

Why?

Proof that you have external validation of your Customer Experience (CX). Sets your business apart from your competitors and gives you a competitive advantage.

Your customers are five times more likely to buy from a company delivering great CX. Promoting your award not only validates your CX to customers but also proves that you put your customers first.

Proves to your employees that their views count – they feel more valued, more engaged and are more likely to be retained.

MERCHANDISE

Trophies

Our Crystal Engraved Iceberg Trophies weighing approximately 2200g/3000g (depending on size). These heavyweight awards look fabulous in a display cabinet in the board room and come in a presentation box.
